NEWS AND AWARDS

WHITEFIELD FOREST

New Lodges

The Isle of Wight has become home to two new beautifully designed luxury lodges. Already a wildlife haven, the lodges have nestled into the red squirrel habitat and are named Woodpecker's Hideout and Red Squirrel's Retreat. Surrounded by woodland but near local beaches. This is luxury accommodation.

HIGHLANDS END

Foot Golf

The Cox family have added an 18 hole crazy foot golf course right next to the park. Set in 7 acres, and overlooking the incredible Jurassic Coast, it's open to both visitors to the park and the public. A winner's podium provides some great photo opportunities and we love the opportunity to get some exercise in such a fun environment!

STRETTON LAKES

A Rutland Favourite

We are thrilled that one of our newest parks has proven so popular. Taking the accolade of 'most popular park on social media', Stretton Lakes in the smallest county in England highlights that you can be both small and mighty!

RICH LEGG AT HIDDEN VALLEY

Walks The Coast Path!

Best of British Director and the owner of Hidden Valley in Devon, Rich walked the entire South West Coast Path over the last 2 years. He took 47 days to achieve this accomplishment. He hiked a total of 630 miles and got to experience the amazing scenery on his doorstep.

GREEN ACRES

Regional Winner – Top 100 Sites Guide

Congratulations go to Josie and Mike at Green Acres in Cumbria. They topped the list of parks in the North West in Practical Caravan's Top 100 Sites Guide. With comments such as 'a well maintained park with friendly staff, five star facilities' and 'best site we have visited' – we can see why they won!

BATH CHEW VALLEY

Regional Winner – Top 100 Sites Guide

Bath Chew Valley has again been mentioned in the Guide, and they are Somerset, Avon and Wiltshire's Regional Winner. Comments relating to cleanliness, friendly staff, great facilities, a neat and tidy campsite and a warm welcome highlight everything we aim to achieve at Best of British.

FIELDS END WATER

Regional Winner – Top 100 Sites Guide

Another winner, this time in Eastern England. Congratulations go to Charlie and the team on providing 5 star service that elicited responses such as 'an excellent, clean and friendly site', 'the lakeside pitches are wonderful – it's lovely to wake up by the water' and compliments to the staff.

EYE KETTLEBY LAKES

Regional Winner – Top 100 Sites Guide

Last year's overall winner, the team at Eye Kettleby Lakes have again made a big impression on visitors. We'll leave you with this comment that stuck in our minds... 'never lets us down... always five star standards'. Congratulations to the whole team, whose efforts in creating wonderful holidays were again acknowledged in the Guide.

POLMANTER TOURING PARK

Winner – Cornwall Tourism Awards

Polmanter won Gold for Camping and Caravanning Park of the Year at the Cornwall Tourism Awards. Accepting the award at Truro Cathedral, the team were commended for the range of 5 star facilities and focus on customer service. Also noted were the continuing sustainability and conservation efforts.

OLD OAKS

AA Sustainable Park of the Year

Glastonbury based Old Oaks is a favourite for adults only with superb glamping options set in an idyllic rural location. The White family's sustainability credentials increase year on year and it's fantastic to see them acknowledged for this.

WOODOVIS PARK

AA Campsite of the Year South West

The team at Woodovis in Devon won this accolade toward the end of 2024, with the AA noting the peaceful location in the Tamar Valley. Favourite features noted by the inspectors included the onsite food options, electric bike hire and solar panels that produce enough electricity for the whole park.

PLASSEY

AA Five Platinum Pennant 2024/25

The Brookshaw family were delighted to have been awarded this rating once more from the AA. They scored 97% following their annual inspection. Key highlights included the immaculate pitches and the superb children's adventure playground.
